Doktorgaarden Boy Killed

Hjalmar Olsen writes as follows:

I must tell you the sad news about Doktorgaarden Boy

When I drove home from the Macon Show, I met a big Tractor Trailer Truck. When we were almost meeting his left front tire exploded, and he plowed right into my truck, throwing it across the ditch and about 75 yards into a field. Boy was almost cut in two and my truck was a complete wreck. It's a miracle my son, Bill and myself were not hurt, but shaken up plenty.

It was the only two times Boy had been shown in this country. It is a very great loss to my kennel.
